Something is wrong. American culture has been anti-virtue and anti-male for decades. It is unrecognized, universal, gross, blatantly sexist and terribly harmful to males. Basically, being very suggestible, males are being ruined by the press and media and schools. I think it is the emphasis on "equality for females"--which has turned into boys being ignored, not getting what they need, and not letting boys compete by developing and using all their abilities, which must be suppressed so the girls feel equal. The harem-feminists have sexually brainwashed men into deadbeat fathers and shamed men into being step-aside hold-the-door "unequal" stooges by being less than they can be or are, so females can be "equal." To the contrary, "equality" means everyone can equally assert him/her-self as much as they can, and the best one "wins." Contrived or gifted "equal outcome" is not "equality" any more than rape.

1. Males are weak and thus raped so easily they do not even realize it or want to admit to it. Regardless, males are weak and quickly stimulated into "forced unplanned unwanted arousal", which is "rape." Harem feminists are "equality men" in everything including sex, and they dress and act seductively actually raping the men. The turned-on guy follows the unspoken invitations of cleavage, jiggle, and butt eye-flutter talk, only later to be accused of sexual assault, which was actually begun by the harem feminist who takes great anti-male pleasure by entrapping and "beating" a real man. It is just like when the "equal male feminist" strikes a man's face with her closed fist, but gets clobbered back (as has happened in the NFL alot) like a real man would be clobbered after he struck an NFL player, only he would get wailed on unmercifully. Picking herself up, the "equal male female" starts the "I am a woman" routine denying, like the harem feminist, that she started the whole mess by thinking "female equality" the whole time. Well, if women want to be equal to men, then welcome to the Equal Misery Amendment wherein you will get "equal equality". They cannot have it both ways. If they rape or hit the guys, they will get it back in return. When wanting to be male, they cannot pull the old pre-harem feminism unequal "poor little old me I'm a woman" routine when she finds her "equal maleness" is unequal. All should be fully treated like the "male" they claimed to be, and that may not be pleasant.

2. Ads degrade men. AT&T and Time-Warner had and have ads where women and minority men look and sound good, while the white male is a wimp and stupidly unable to talk sense (None but a white male would have ever been demeaned in that way). That ad company should be shut down or be fined like the NBA did to its racist owner. What do young kids think when they see such crap? Progressive had such an ad and Mercury Insurance degraded white males too. The idiot in any ad is always a white male.

3. Men still give expensive engagement rings--an outrageous anti-male inequality never addressed by feminists, who want "to be men" but not treated as "men treat men." For males, "forget" about treating women as females--they want to be "equal" as men, then treat them that way.

4. In most settings (whether work, home, public, government), females can act as aggressive males but males cannot. Professing "equality", females proceed; and males are told to step aside and not exert their own nature, because females are doing it for them. Then there is the feminist who acts the man--drinks, swears, asserts, projects self, insults, and then strikes out when he tells her off. So he strikes back as if she was the man she wanted to be--and suddenly she is a poor woman again being struck by a man. What frauds feminists are. You cannot treat them "like a man" even when they say they are and carry on like one. She wants to punch you out; tries to do so; and then cries "I am a woman" when you treat her like the so-called "man" she tried to be.

5. "Patriarchy" has been defamed and destroyed to the detriment of male development. Indeed, where there are no patriarchs, there are no feminists.

6. "Virtue" (vir=man) has become anathema because of anti-religious prejudice. Also, "man" has become selfishly forbidden as the generic term for "bipedal human creature of any age, sex or nature" which means that "man", properly used, is "any creature with human DNA." "Man" actually is the abbreviated "mankind" or "humanity." The suppression of "man" is psychologically damaging to developing males by depriving them of the freedom and expectations for manly virtue identity and self-worth manhood as part of the human species, which includes the power to speak freely and act equally about what is un-virtuous.

7. Childhood for males is destroyed by intrusion of adult sexuality with resulting distraction from needed pre-adult learning and development. Boys are easily seduced ("raped") into prurience of any kind, routinely intensely offered day in and day out by the press & media. Normal "infatuation" or "puppy love" incidents easily become pathologically exaggerated into non-male gender identification or obsessional dysmorphic male disorders. Press and media self-inflating sensationalism is responsible.

8. The abandonment of natural law and planetary aspects of human sexuality, by abortion and by contraception, has created a masturbatory entropic culture destroying family life as males are prohibited relevance and deprived of self-fulfillment and success as natural males being head of the family.

9. Government bureaucrats have replaced men as providers for home, women and children--and jobs are sent overseas which might enable men to reassume a provider role. For the home and elsewhere, males have been rendered obsolete. Even in the military and draft, now women are part and, I remind: EQUALITY DEMANDS THERE CAN BE NO RULE, GUIDELINE, DIRECTIVE, ORDER, OR MANEUVER REQUIRING MALES TO DO MORE THAN FEMALES...unless the male is awarded more in proportion to the difference performed--equal pay for equal work--and more for more-PERIOD. Nowhere will male maximum ability be discriminated against more than in the military and likely in the police and fire-fighting professions, unless they get paid with equal equality as the norm.

10. Childhood for males is destroyed by an over-stimulating violent culture with resulting loss of self-reflective self-control consistent with prosocial and personal development. By violence, males are deprived of reflective empathic problem-solving learning experiences accurately characterized as "virtue." Press and media self-inflating sensationalism is responsible for the destruction of childhood.

11. Female hormones in birth control medications and diet contribute to the male predominance of attention deficit disorder, autism, atypical development, learning disabilities, anxiety-rage-mood disorders, and gender confusion. Female hormones are against males in nature.

12. Homes, schools and organizations attend more and more to addressing learning and personal/personhood development for girls while boys are deprived and disregarded, more and more, as disciplinary problems. The "content of male character" is emptied. Press and media self-inflating suppression of male virtue is partially responsible.

13. The absence of and the inappropriate demeaning of fathers and other men as "oppressors" removes virtuous men as models for development, and conditions men to move to a non-virtuous mode. Sex-wise too: Husbands used to be respected as "belonging to his wife" and not to be "hit on" by other women--which is total disrespect for "the wife," is anti-virtue and destroys the family-Harem feminism at its self-proclaimed "best." Actually, harem feminism destroys males' commitment to his wife (or any woman, for that matter) rendering her "unnecessary" so he fades out of family oneness; and even the wife no longer "needs" him as she too joins the feminist harem (A case can be made that this is the basis for the demise of the family--the meaninglessness of marriage vows because of harem feminism).

14. Males are rendered unequal and inferior when females compete with males as if females are males but , at the same time, females egregiously demand special considerations as females, while male innate potentials are suppressed. Perhaps the worst is the "equality" of females to "party" like males; then unwittingly stimulate the males ("raping" them?); then protest, as "rape," the consequences of mutual loss of virtue.

15. Males' innate higher energy seeks "escape" from any culture degrading and abusing them. Young desperate deprived males readily find marihuana, alcohol, and street drugs as "escape" paralyzing them into lesser educated and lesser job qualified conditions in which their "escape" methods result in anti-social and criminal survival. Childhood and education must offer equal development of maximum beneficial outcome.

16. Being a "productive and working" (essential to "virtuous") male has been de-emphasized into drug linked prurient violent paralysis, with press and media self-inflating sensationalism responsible. Work force data:

All males not in work force (wf)--13% in 1948; 30 % in 2013.

Age 25-54 (working age) males not in wf--3% in 1951; 4% in 1970; 12% in 2013.

Age 25-54 (working age but not in wf) males refusing to work--54 % in 1994; 73 % in 2006; 64 % in 2013.

< 25 year old males not in wf--24% in 1976; 22 % in 1978; 43 % in 2013.

All females not in wf--67 % in 1948; 40 % in 2008; 43 % in 2013.

17. Financial investments in private prisons and prison support industries by judges and any others in the legal system are enhanced by over-criminalization of males. The lack of genuine "rehabilitation" is just more profit for those investing in the prison system.

Males incarcerated in 1945--250,000; in 2015--over 2.5 million.

This over criminalization is an absolute proof of an anti-male culture.

18. According to the Supreme Court, all laws must make all EQUAL and must be GENDERLESS. "Gender" has been destroyed by the gay cult because "sex" is no longer "reproductive" as it is in nature. "Gender" is now one's preferred way of masturbating--a Great Britain survey of older students offered 25 different "genders" to choose for oneself. Gender is meaningless. No one person of any gender can be required to do more than any one of any other gender--even in the military...and if you do more, then you get paid more. And the first gender equalizing law must be the prohibition of engagement rings or their equalization. Genderless standards must now be the common good. Equal equality means gender consideration is prohibited.

Closure

The press and media in particular have failed the Founders' mandate and expectations that the First Amendment would maintain virtuous men (male and female) to sustain our democracy. It is time other actions are taken to create virtuous males as well as females. "Freedom" has become "Anything goes, just call it 'art'" and "Do not tell me I am wrong"--paradigms resulting in existence without virtue--Press and media self-inflating sensationalism is responsible and is the undoing of the Founders because "deviant pseudo-freedom" has replaced responsible virtue. THE PRESS & MEDIA CELEBRATE VIOLENCE-- and many are vulnerable and suggestible to imitate what they see, especially if deprived of real childhood and of traditional virtuous fathers. Thus, the "self-evident truths" no longer exist if un-virtuous or anti-transcendental. Unless there is a minimum of "virtue" (dare I say "Christian Virtue") in a system, overt or sub rosa, the people are no good to the degree that even laws will not sustain the so-called "culture," because virtuous men are essential for truth, oneness, good and beauty. Society must condition males to be virtuous. Anti-virtuous-male-sexism must stop. Special pleading sexism must stop. Actually, equal opportunity for content of character should rule.
